

Animal Control - Here is Why Mediation Works!

For the Complainant:

- Timely, Facilitated, Safe and Successful
- Opportunity to speak directly about how the barking is affecting your quality of life
- Identify specific steps which may be taken to resolve the situation

For the Dog Owner:

- Face-to-Face opportunity to talk with the person affected
- Ownership of their part in the conversation and situation
- Direct involvement in reaching an agreement which takes into consideration your pet and your quality of life

Animal Control - Here is How the Process Works

If you're filing a complaint:

- You may call 303-651-6534 or email CMC@FindSolutions.org
- CMC's program coordinator will call you within the next several days to talk about how mediation can help resolve the barking dog problem.
- Your contact information will be kept confidential! Only if you agree to mediation, will your name be shared and mediation scheduled.
- While it is convenient to file an anonymous complaint, it is not effective. Being willing to take the responsibility to sit down with your neighbors and reach a mediated solution is much better.

If you're the dog owner:

- Mediation is a voluntary process. CMC will make every effort to contact the complainant and explain the benefits of mediation.
- However, we cannot compel someone to mediate. We will let you know the outcome of our discussion within a few days.
